The Queenslander Pictorial.

On the Western Front

Bringing up the Lewis machine guns in carriages.

Troops resting on their way from a turn in the trenches. When the troops in the trenches are relieved they are thoroughly exhausted, and seize the first opportunity to throw themselves down and sleep. Official photos through Central News

THE INCOMING TIDE, LUCINDA POINT.

A. A. White, Photo.

Citizen Signallers in Camp at Chermside.

1st, 2nd, 3rd Light Horse Signallers

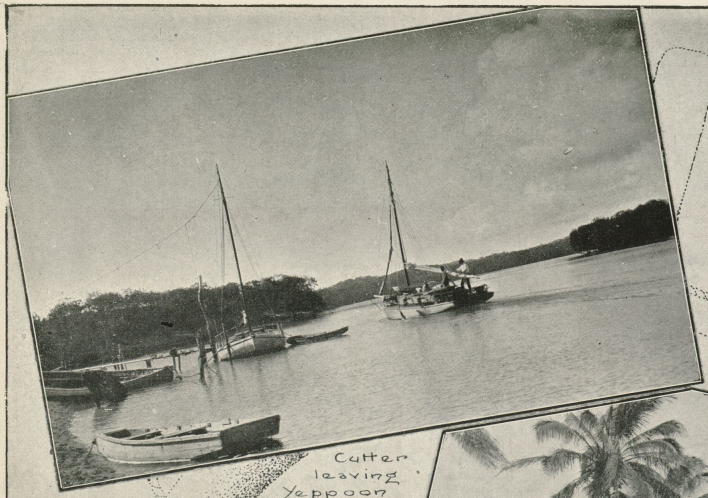
15th Signal Troop.

"The Boys in Dungaree Blue"

Lieut. Day (centre figure) in command.

J. Little Photo.

Scenes on the Keppel Islands.



Cutter leaving Yeppoon Creek for the islands.

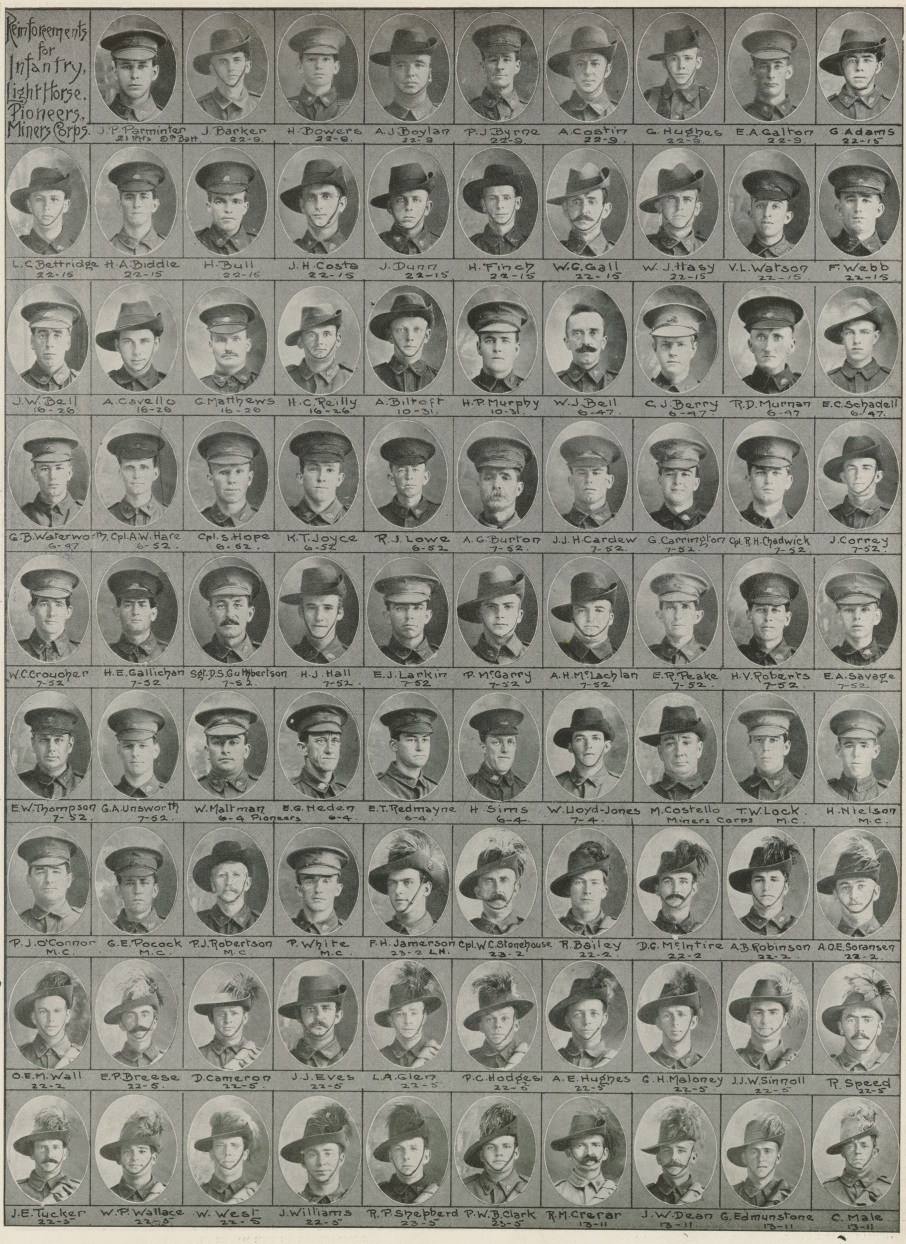
Huts under the coconut trees on North Keppel (the island is now the property of Mr J. H. W. Myles).

A camping party from Rockhampton on South Keppel.

Photos by J. J. Ashe

Oyster rocks on North Keppel; South Keppel in the distance.

Reinforcements for Infantry, Light Horse, Pioneers, Miners Corps.

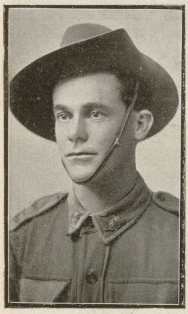


A STATION RECORD.

The four Just brothers, who enlisted from Camisla, Miles district, last year, and three of whom have appeared in the casualty lists.

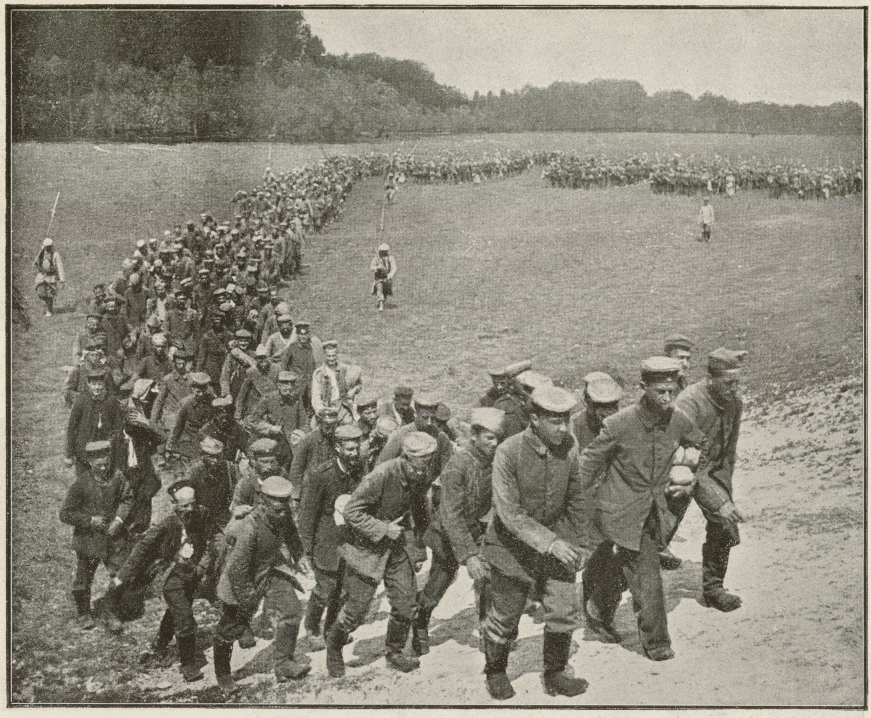
JAMES YULE JUST,
Killed in action in France, August 5, 1916.

ROBERT NICOL JUST,
Wounded.



ALEXANDER JUST,
Wounded.

THOMAS CLARK JUST.



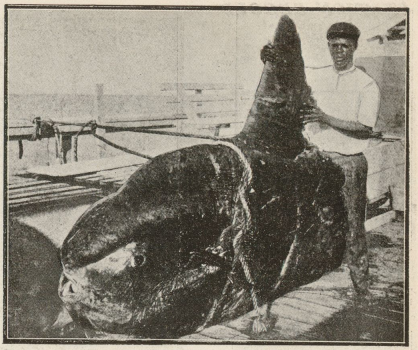
PART OF THE SOMME "BAG."
A convoy of German prisoners leaving for the French rear in the Somme area to be entrained for prison camps. They were first formed up in squares, as seen in the background of the picture.—"L'Illustration."

PRIVATE ERNEST GREGORY,
Died of wounds.

PRIVATE PATRICK FENELEY,
Wounded.

PLEASED TO BE PRISONERS.
Germans captured in the Somme area show their delight at being in the hands of "the enemy."

QUEENSLANDERS ON THE MARCH IN THE DESERT.



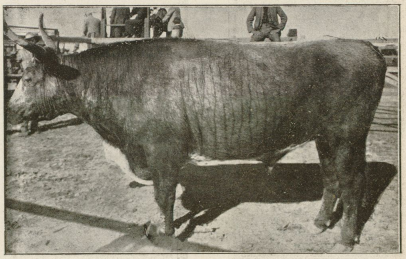
AN ELEPHANT-EARED SUNFISH.

A few weeks ago we published a photograph of an immense sunfish caught in Moreton Bay at Southport. The monstrosity in this picture is described as an "elephant" sunfish. It was caught at Palm Beach, Florida, was 7ft. 6in. long, 4ft. wide, and 3ft. thick, and weighed 1200lb.

CLONCURRY TOMATOES.

These four specimens, grown by Mrs. Charles Hutton, Orange Grove, Cloncurry, weighed 11lb. 4oz.

OFF TO THE WAR.



A "PATRIOTIC" BULLOCK.

Presented by Mr. J. R. Lucas, of Greysteel, Longreach, to a local patriotic fund, and was sold for £17, in addition to a good sum in a weight-guessing competition. —T. Tighe photo.

THE SUGAR MILL AT BAFFLE CREEK.

The upper picture shows the mill with residences of the staff behind and the creek in the foreground. In the lower view is the Flinders State School, which was built in 1911 on the top of the hill where Mr. Robinson's grave marks the resting place of the earliest pioneer of Baffle Creek.

—A. T. Diete photo.

NORMAN E. MOSSOP,
Youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Mossop, of Brisbane, who enlisted in the Artillery in Sydney.

PTE. F. WHALEN,
Of the 12th Reinforcements for the 2nd Light Horse. He has four brothers at the Front.

PTE. F. G. W. WHITE,
Of the 3rd Reinforcements for the 47th Battalion, is the son of Recruiting Sergeant F. P. White.

Infantry, Artillery, Pioneer and Light Horse Reinforcements.

THE NEW MILITARY CAMP AT TOOWOOMBA.
The upper picture shows the new camp in course of construction in connection with the "call to arms." In the lower view are seen the first batch of "home service" men to arrive in camp. —C. W. Callaghan photo.